David and Shelley Webb are global missionaries with the Church of the Nazarene. They are assigned to the MAC Region (Mexico and Central America) and live in Costa Rica.

David graduated from Iowa State University with a BBA in marketing in 1987 and also received his Master of Divinity degree from NTS in May of 2006. Shelley graduated from Simpson College with a B.A. in English Education and from Northwestern State University of Louisiana with M.A. in Student Personnel Services (Higher Education Admin.) Prior to being assigned, David served as Associate Pastor in Woodlawn, Tennessee, as well as Christian Education Director, NMI President, Sunday School teacher and outreach coordinator. Shelley served as a worship leader, youth leader, Sunday School teacher, NMI president and an early childhood teacher while teaching and working with local universities in administration and counseling in the states of Louisiana, Tennessee and Kansas.

Assignments:

David's assignment in Costa Rica is Coordinator of Evangelism for Panama, Costa Rica and Nicaragua. He trains leaders in church planting and evangelism strategies as well as works with Integrated Ministry teams.

Shelley works with David in the Evangelism Ministry as well as with the Seminary of the Americas (SENDAS) as the Public Relations/ Communications Coordinator as well as the CALL (Christian Academy of Language and Learning) Spanish language School Coordinator.

David and Shelley have two children, Joshua, age 15, and Kayley, age 11 who attend an International School just outside of San Jose. They are wonderful assets to the family ministry.

Family Hobbies:

David: Sports, (especially Iowa State Cyclones and the Green Bay Packers) He likes Christian rock music

Shelley: Reading Christian fiction and listening to Christian music (Audio Adrenaline, Skillet, Newsboys)

Joshua: Likes to play basketball and watch all sports, loves to read Christian books as by Ted Dekker and Tolkien

Kayley: Enjoys crafts, learning to knit, crochet and quilt. Likes to ride her bike, paint her fingernails and dress up for special occasions
